

October Newsletter 2018

Greetings from the Saint Thomas More House of Prayer,

I hope this message finds you well and thriving in God's merciful love. I would like to let you know about two exciting pieces of news from the Saint Thomas More House of Prayer. First, our Men and Women's Fall retreat in October and second, a new initiative to start a blog on the website.

For the second year we will be holding a mixed retreat for men and women teens and adults to attend this fall October 12th-14th. The retreat will be on the "The Call to Holiness" and will be led by Fr. Benedict Bendingfeld of the Community of Saint John. As usual with House retreats, check in will begin at 5:00PM Friday night and conclude with lunch on Sunday afternoon. Please contact me at (814)-677-1910 or info@liturgyofthehours.org to sign up. More information is available on our website liturgyofthehours.org.

New this fall The House of Prayer will be featuring a blog on the website about how the the House of Prayer has impacted people's lives. If you have an experience with the liturgy of the hours you would like to tell us about send us an email (info@liturgyofthehours.org) or mail it to St Thomas More House of Prayer, 365 Hill City Road, Cranberry, PA 16319, to have it featured in the blog. Idea prompt sheets will be available in the House of Prayer and on the website if you would like to use one to help you fill out information. By highlighting the experiences of the families and friends who have come to know and love the Liturgy of the Hours and the House of Prayer we hope to further spread awareness about the Liturgy of the Hours and tools we have for promoting it.

I encourage you to take advantage of the tools the St. Thomas More House of Prayer has to help you pray and promote the liturgy of the hours.

God bless,
Your friends at the Saint Thomas More House of Prayer
Feast of St. Wenceslaus